New Business: (attach additional paper if more room is needed)

1. Funding Requests:

a. Matchbox Magazine Requests:

- i. Annual literary magazine publishing, art, poetry, etc. Aiming to create community between the UCs and with students. Encourage any students to join the publication. Matchbox Magazine gives students the ability to create their work/publication, promote skills learned through the club, and give them a chance to publish a real book.
- ii. Need funding for expensive costs that are used throughout the whole year. Expecting budget for the year: $4,000.

iii. Amount Requested: $500

b. Chinquapin Literary Magazine:

- i. Release magazine every spring; 46th edition this year. UCSC's annual anthology of undergraduate art and writing that has been running since 1979. "To represent the UCSC student body by publishing the work of talented artists which reflects the creative diversity of our student body." Create a space to showcase the talent of our student body.

ii. Amount Requested: $500

c. Right Livelihood Center

- i. Right Livelihood Center at UCSC is one of the only Right Livelihood College Network in North America. The club aims to connect activism and academia with critical thinking, education on global issues, etc, by hosting community conversations, internships, courses, and so much more.
- ii. Collaborating with Stevenson College... shared values and mission with college, engaging students, and providing educational opportunities for any student interested.
- iii. Event: Community conversations: food, utensils, art utensils, and location funding needed ($300); Workshops: food, supplies, and location funding ($170)

iv. Total Amount Requested: $477

2. Study Break Debrief:

- a. Things to improve for next study break: better communication to streamline information, promoting events differently/earlier, running out of food a little bit early, the raffle was a little bit messy

3. Mural Update:

- a. Another artist for the mural is in mind... the first artist we contacted is out of our budget reserved for the mural project.
- b. Psi will reach out to the artist to ask for a proposal for artwork and budget. We will compare budget proposals between two artists.
