Enrollment Information

ENROLLMENT DATES

It is time to enroll for Spring 2012!! Check your MyUCSC student portal for your enrollment appointment. Enroll in classes for spring as close to your enrollment time as possible to ensure that you have the best chance in securing the courses you want for next quarter. Priority enrollment begins Wednesday, February 19th.

THE COMPLETE SCHEDULE OF CLASSES (SOC)

Are you accessing the complete Schedule of Classes? In addition to the course listings for the quarter, important information is contained in the online text pages of the Schedule of Classes at <http://reg.ucsc.edu/soc.htm>. You will find important announcements, info on placement exams, final exam schedules, course descriptions of new classes, and enrollment conditions for interview only courses. You'll also find the complete academic calendar, a schedule planner, general information on enrolling and fees, and department contact information.

THINKING OF ENROLLING IN MORE THAN 19 CREDITS?

No one can enroll in more than 19 credits until the first day of instruction for the quarter. On the first day of classes (Monday April 2nd, 2012) students with a cumulative UCSC GPA of 3.0 or above may enroll in up to 22 credits without approval from their college. You need college approval for an increased course load if you would like to: Enroll in more than 22 credits and you have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above, or Enroll in more than 19 credits and you have a cumulative GPA below 3.0. To request an increased course load, contact your college adviser. In most cases, approval will not be granted until after your winter grades can be reviewed. Please note: UC regulations indicate that 3 hours of academic work per week is expected for each earned credit. Twenty credits will equal about 60 hours of academic work per week (including class time).

SUMMER COURSES 2012

The preliminary course listing and general information for Summer Session 2012 is NOW AVAILABLE at <http://summer.ucsc.edu/>. Enrollment for summer classes will begin on April 16th.

“Diversity At Stevenson” Photo Contest

Are you interested in having your photographs featured on the Stevenson website? How about winning some awesome prizes?

What: We are looking for “top-notch” photos (large file sizes and high resolution) that represent diversity at Stevenson of all types.

Including one or two sentences describing each photo. Each contestant may submit up to 5 photos.

Who/Where: Photos can be submitted to Andrew Iliuta at ailiuta@ucsc.edu.

When: Students can begin submitting photos to Andrew from January 17th and cannot submit photos after March 2nd.

More Details: Each student is limited to submitting 5 photos along with his or her name, year and 1-2 sentences about why your photo represents diversity in our community.

*Please note: Once you submit photos, Stevenson reserves the right to use them.

African American Theater Arts Troupe Presents:

"Ruined" by Lynn Nottage
in the

Stevenson Event Center on March 2-3 @ 7pm
(FREE for Students!!!!!!)

“Set in a rain forest bar and brothel in the brutally war-torn Congo, the play follows as the establishment’s shrewd matriarch, Mama Nadi, keeps peace between customers from both sides of the civil war, as government soldiers and rebel forces alike choose from her inventory of women, many already “ruined” by rape and torture when they were pressed into prostitution. Inspired by interviews she conducted in Africa with Congo refugees, Nottage has crafted an engrossing and uncommonly human story with humor and song served alongside its postcolonial and feminist politics in the rich theatrical tradition of Bertolt Brecht’s Mother Courage.”
