Instructors should clearly explain the University's academic misconduct policy in the context of their courses and specify the academic sanction for misconduct (e.g., no credit for the work in question, failing grade for the course). Failure to include this information in the course syllabus, however, does not excuse students from knowing and being accountable for adherence to the precepts of academic honesty and the policy of the University.

Only in very unusual circumstances should as much as an entire term (Fall, Winter, Spring) pass, subsequent to the term in which the incident allegedly occurred, without notification to the student.
